

Abstract of the Disclosure

A wood-type golf club comprises a club shaft and a club head, wherein a club length is in a range of from 43 to 48 inches, a volume of the club head is in a range of not less than 250 cc, and a torque T in degree of the club shaft and a gravity point distance L in mm between the gravity point of the club head and the center line of the club shaft satisfy conditions (1) $T \geq 0.143L - 2.79$ and (2) $T \leq 0.286L - 7.14$.